Dear Friend,

I will be joining a public question-and-answer session hosted by the League of Women Voters at the Arcada Theatre in St. Charles on Tuesday, April 18. Doors open at 6:30 p.m., and the event begins at 7:00 p.m.

I enjoy engaging with constituents to tackle the key issues and challenges of our communities and nation. Many have enjoyed and benefitted from a variety of formats of engagement, including my Coffees with the Congressman, constituent 1-1 meetings, Congressional Conference Calls, Community Leadership Forums and on-site meetings with local small businesses, hospitals, churches, municipalities, county governments, schools, non-profit organizations and more.

I appreciate this invitation from the League of Women Voters and look forward to joining this question-and-answer session to again hear from constituents who live in the 14th District on the issues that are on their minds, and to let them know how I'm working for them in Congress.
